Parents Code of Behaviour

- Remember that children participate in sport for their enjoyment, not yours.
 - Encourage children to participate, do not force them.
 - focus on the child's efforts and performance rather than winning or losing.
 - Encourage children always to play according to the rules and to settle disagreements without resorting to hostility or violence.
 - Never ridicule or yell at a child for making a mistake or losing a competition.
 - Remember children learn best by example. Appreciate good performances and skilfull plays by all participants
 - Support all efforts to remove verbal and physical abuse from sporting activities.
 - Respect officials' decisions and teach children to do likewise.
 - show appreciation for volunteer coaches, officials and administrators. Without them, your child could not participate.
 - Respect the rights, dignity and worth of every young person regardless of their gender, ability, cultural background or religion.

Spectators Code of Behaviour

- Remember that young people participate in sport for their enjoyment and benefit, not yours.
- Applaud good performance and efforts from all individuals and teams. Congratulate all participants on their performance regardless of the games outcome.
- Respect the decisions of the officials and teach young people to do the same.
- Never ridicule a young player for making a mistake. Positive comments are motivational.
- Condemn the use of violence in any form, wether it is by spectators, coaches, officials or players.
- Show respect for your team opponents. Without them, their will be no game.
- Encourage players to follow the rules and the officials' decisions.
- Do not use foul language, sledge or harass players, coaches or officials.
- Respect the rights, dignity and worth of every young person regardless of their gender, ability, cultural background or religion.
